Extra Report Pad - professional solution for analyzing your trading account

Today, it is important to trade at once for several currency pairs. But the more deals, the more difficult it is to analyze the profitability of your account. Even more difficult to analyze deals by months. And even more so to calculate the statistical data for each deal separately.

We found a solution: Our panel is able to analyze your account and compile statistics in as much detail as possible in real time .

Indicator for collecting and analyzing your trading account.

FOREWORD

Since the beginning of our work in Forex, a lot of time has passed, and trading on the forex market makes us distracted by such things as trading account analysis. This is especially true of experts who work on the machine.

Analyzing profitable trading pairs based on the standard MetaTrader report is very difficult. It does not contain detailed data on deals, let alone data on profitable currency pairs and also statistics by months.

You can monitor your account on one of the services to collect statistics, but it's not entirely convenient. Data will not be collected in real mode.

Testing one of our scalper for the forex TickSniper, we ran into exactly this problem.

After testing the monthly period, we had to disassemble the report manually, to find out which pairs were profitable, and which were unprofitable - and based on the data received, to correct the work further.

We found a solution to our problem and created an indicator EXTRA REPORT PAD capable of automatically analyzing your account and displaying detailed information about everything in Real Time!

Benefits

Our indicator is designed to analyze the trading on Forex in real time. Use full statistics and all data that can be extracted from the MetaTrader terminal!

myfxbook mini in the window of your terminal and always at your fingertips!

A detailed report that is uploaded into HTML contains 200% more information than the standard MT report
